TLC Massage Therapy Program - 500 hours

As one of the nation's forerunners in Massage Therapy Education, TLC has spent over 30 years developing and refining our Massage Therapy Programs and Continuing Education offerings. The TLC Massage Therapy Program interweaves health sciences, spa treatments, orthopedic massage techniques, business experiences, and more to provide a comprehensive massage therapy education.

Why Choose TLC?

1. Experience is the key! We have been training Massage Therapists for over 30 years. That makes a big difference in how successful you will be in this career and your ability to help people! Lauterstein-Conway provides the highest level of training in therapeutic techniques, science, and the art of skillful touch. We update and refine our curriculum regularly to make sure you leave with cutting-edge information and skills.
2. We love what we do and we want you to love what you do too! We endeavor to run our school in as healing a manner as the subjects we teach. We want each graduate to be therapeutically masterful, professionally successful and personally fulfilled. We are committed to your success during the program and throughout your career!
3. We believe in the Art and Science of bodywork! Lauterstein-Conway is one of the only schools that combines a rigorous scientific training with an intuitive approach that allows you to use your creativity when designing a massage session that fits each person you work with.
4. We offer the highest quality continuing education workshops. We offer over 300 hours of workshops each year on topics such as Oncology Massage, Anatomy Trains, Advanced Deep Tissue, Manual Lymphatic Drainage, Advanced Zero Balancing, Thai Massage, and more.
5. Our 250 hr Advanced Clinical Massage and Bodywork Program is truly unique. This is the only program in the U.S. that includes Orthopedic Massage Certification, Deep Massage Certification, Psychology of Bodywork, Zero Balancing, Shiatsu, and Advanced Integrative Bodywork all in one affordable program. Take your skills to the next level!
